

COATS and SUITS

For Saturday

A glance at the prices which follow will be more interesting than a long explanation. But just a word as to their style—every garment we offer in this sale is from last years' stock and while the style is not exact the prices we have put on them for Saturday doesn't begin to represent their true value today.

$20.00, 13.50 and 11.00 Suits for - - $5.00
12.50, 11.00, 10.00 and 8.87 Suits for - - 3.98
13.50, 12.50, 11.50 and 10.00 Coats for - - 5.00
7.98, 7.50 and 5.98 Coats for - - 3.98

The above garments are all suitable for spring wear; the purchasers of these will get a big amount of satisfaction for their money.

Conductor Kesson of the Washington street electric car service says that it was not an electric car which caused M. David's two-horse team to run away Wednesday afternoon, but the trouble was due to the unhitching of a part of the harness. He says that the team was standing still when the car passed them, and the horses were not frightened.

Lucas Langdon Nicholas, better known as the "Count," who lived for a short time in this city, died Wednesday night in Rutland, where he had been employed in various hotels for several years, and the remains were brought back to Montpelier today for interment in Green Mount cemetery. He was 60 years old and was the son of Anastasia and Caira Langdon Nicholas, a sister of the late James R. Langdon of Montpelier. Anastasia was said to be of Greek nobility.

G. A. Bagley, engineer on the "Granite City" engine on the Barre railroad, met with an unfortunate accident about 8:30 o'clock this morning, in which he received a compound fracture of his right ankle. He had run his engine on a side-track near Barre Brothers' shed, and in getting down from the cab he stepped onto a rolling stone, turning over his ankle. Though the injury was very painful, he insisted on running his engine back to the yard in the rear of the Miles granite block and trainmen then carried him to his room in the block. Drs. J. W. Jackson and L. L. Leonard were called and found that his ankle was out of joint and both bones in the ankle had been fractured.

Fritz Hansen, the Swedish champion catch-as-catch-can wrestler who is now located in Burlington, is in the city today with his backers, C. J. Atwood of Burlington, attempting to arrange a match between himself and Eli H. Bourdon of Claremont, N. H. Bourdon is also in town and Manager Hoban of the opera house is being consulted in regard to the arrangements under which the match shall be wrestled if the wrestlers finally agree on a match. Hansen and his backer have blood in their eyes for Bob Somerville and this morning Atwood is giving it out that he has $100 or more that says Hansen can take two falls out of Somerville in an hour, or, if Somerville will not agree to that, he will make it three times in an hour. Hansen is 15 or 20 pounds heavier than Somerville. Hansen has wrestled here in two matches, the first with Jack Grace of New York and the second with Young Goteh a few weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Miller have arrived in this city, where they will make their home, having been married in Jay, Me., on Wednesday night. The officiating clergyman sends the following account of the marriage: "At the home of Mrs. Harriet Keyes, the bride's grandmother, were married on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, Robert Chester Miller and Miss Ruth Fannie Thompson. The wedding was attended by only the immediate relatives, and the ceremony was conducted by the Rev. S. N. Nielsen, pastor of the Universalist church at North Jay, Me. Many very pretty presents were received, which were handsomely arranged on a table. After the ceremony the wedding guests, with the bride and bridegroom, sat down to partake of a tastefully prepared luncheon. The young couple left the next morning for Barre, Vt., where their future residence will be. Mr. Miller being engaged in the granite works. They leave with heartfelt congratulations of their many friends in Jay, who are sorry to lose them as residents of Jay, of which both are natives and where both have been living till now."

THIS STORE FOR COMFORTABLE CLOTHES

This will be a great suit week at our store. We have received a special and somewhat delayed shipment which we expected to put on our tables two weeks ago. Now that it is here and all ready for business, we want to say that it is one of the finest assortments that has ever been placed before the buyers of this city, and for this reason, we anticipate such a run on this lot of new styles as has not been experienced for many a day.

You Will See Some of Them in Our Window Display

If you think $10 is all you want to pay for a suit, come to us. If $12, $15 or $18 is your price, we can please you. If $20 or $22 is what you have decided to pay for your summer suit, we have a wide range of fabrics at these prices which cannot fail to appeal to the most particular taste.

Candy.

We are not in the 29c class when it comes to selling candy. One reason is that we think too much of our customers to offer them stuff of that class. Another is that our customers do not want it. We are selling Foss' Mixed Chocolates because they are the best we can get for 50c a lb. Not much different in price but a lot different in quality.
